NEW DENT IS DRIVEN IN AT VERDUN

CROWN PRINCE'S ARMY POUNDS AWAY AT BETHINCOURT.

LITTLE DOING ELSEWHERE

SUBMARINE ACTIVITY CONTINUES, THREE SHIPS SUNK.

The salient in the French lines west of the Meuse, with the village of Bethincourt at its sharp angle is being pounded on both sides by the crown prince's troops, which in their last drive succeeded in making a new dent in the line southwest of Bethincourt.

The success was achieved near Hancourt village, the important position lost by the French on Wednesday, the Germans gaining a footing in two small field works between Hancourt and Hill No. 287, which lies two-thirds of a mile to the south of the village.

On the other side of the salient there also has been sharp fighting but according to Paris today the advantage here was with the French who beat off their adversaries in a grenade combat between Bethincourt and Chastancourt.

There has been little fighting elsewhere in the Verdun region. A German grenade attack near Fort Vaux was repulsed by the French whose position between the Meuse and the Moselle has been subjected to intermittent bombardment.

An Austrian transport has been sunk in the Adriatic by a French submarine, Paris announces officially.

There is no let-up in submarine activity. Added to the list of vessels destroyed are the steamers Chantala, of 4,949 tons and Brautona, of 4,575 tons and the schooner Clyde of Whitstable.

A bill submitted to the Dutch parliament authorizes the calling up of the recruits of the 1917 class if it should be deemed necessary.

LONDON, April 8.—The loss of three more British vessels was reported today by Lloyds. The steamship Brautona and the schooner Clyde of Whitstable were blown up. The crews were saved. The steamship Chantala was sunk. The steamship Brautona, 4,575 tons gross and 380 feet long was built in 1911 and owned at Cardiff, Wales. Her recent movements are not reported. She arrived at Specia, Italy, from Philadelphia on December 18. The Chantala was in London on March 10 and was booked to sail for Calcutta. She was built in 1913, was 405 feet long, 4,949 tons gross and was owned in Glasgow.

ENTENT ALLIES CONFERENCE.

Cabinet Ministers of Various Countries Assemble at Paris.

PARIS, April 8.—The conference of the entente allies for discussion of economic and commercial questions will assemble in Paris on April 20. It will be attended by many distinguished delegates, including a number of cabinet ministers from the various countries.

The sessions will extend over four days. President Poincaré will preside at the opening. The principal topic of discussion will be mutual exchange of commodities under a tariff system favorable to the allied nations.

Premier Hughes, of Australia, who will be a delegate is expected to take an advanced position for a joint tariff system which will establish minimum rates among the allies and their colonies, reasonable rates for neutrals and strong discrimination against all dealings with hostile countries.

Other subjects to be taken up are: 1.—An understanding concerning all legislation intended to regulate commercial relations among the belligerents such as the execution of contracts, credits, sequestration of goods and the subject of patents.

2.—Precautionary measures to be taken against invasion of allied countries by German products after the passage from the state of war to the state of peace.

3.—Reparation of war damages.

4.—Reduction of postal, telegraphic and telephone rates among the allied countries.

5.—Agreements relative to the international transport of goods.

6.—Creation of an international patent office.

7.—The commercial regime of the colonies of the allied countries.

8.—Internationalization of laws concerning stock companies.

9.—Measures intended to reduce metallic circulation through an international chamber of compensation and postal check system.

10.—Uniform principles to be observed in the laws relative to false designation of merchandise.

11.—Failures.

12.—Legislation regarding the loss and theft of bonds payable to the bearer.

TELEGRAPH TIPS

CLEVELAND, O.—Miss Anna Gammell, 40, old seamstress, died today. She was aged here today before Judge John H. Clarke in United States district court on a charge of sending objectionable letters through the mails. Her arrest last night came as the climax to a "poison pen" sensation which has torn Salem church and society circles for two years. Miss Gammell pleaded not guilty and bail was fixed at $500 and furnished.

CLEVELAND.—Passenger navigation on the great Lakes between Cleveland and Detroit will be opened Monday, D. C. McIntyre, general agent of the Detroit and Cleveland line announced today. Two boats will leave Detroit for Cleveland Monday, one in the morning and the other in the evening. It was also announced that all D. & C. crews would receive a ten per cent wage increase.

CHICAGO.—The milk war between the producers in the Chicago district and the distributors Chicago which for the last few days has curtailed deliveries of consumers, is practically at an end today.

BERLIN.—The German government is able to announce that no German submarine or warship was responsible for the explosion which damaged the British steamer Sussex.

COLUMBUS.—Forest L. May, postmaster of Dayton, was elected president of the Ohio Postmasters' association when it was organized here today with about half of the first, second and third class offices in the state represented; vice president chosen was R. E. Jennings of West Milton, Wesley H. Zaugg of Wooster, and Valdes Harold of Portsmouth. George B. Snyder of Youngstown, was made secretary, and A. E. Shafer of Wapakoneta, treasurer.

TOLEDO.—Police today were trying to establish the identity of a man whose body was found in the Maumee river near Presque Isle, late yesterday. He was about 45 years old, 5 feet 11 inches tall, and weighed 170 pounds. His shoes bore the name of E. H. Kloss, shoe dealer, of Fremont, Ohio.

SAN FRANCISCO.—James Moran surrendered himself to a United States marshal in San Diego last night and confessed to F. M. Morse, postal inspector, here today, to aiding in the Liberty street ferry postal robbery two months ago, in New York, when nearly a million dollars in securities were stolen.

SNOW AT CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, O., April 8.—Southern Ohio experienced its heaviest April snow-fall in years last night and early today. Two and one-half inches of snow fell here up to 8 a. m. today.

WATCHMAN SLAIN.

AMHERST, O., April 8.—Rupert Becker, Amherst night watchman, died early today as a result of wounds received in a running gun fight on the street here late Monday.

Martin Bishop, who, says he, shot Becker, is being held under a charge of shooting to kill.

ASPIRANTS FOR COUNTY TICKET BEGIN TO ASPIRE

Candidates Start to Make Open Announcements of Ambitions.

BURTON PICKS NAMER

Willis is Chosen to Make Speech Nominating Ohio Man.

By David W. Bowman.

J. I. Luginbuhl, of Richland township, is the first democrat to appear with a public announcement of his aspiration to a place on the county ticket. He is again a candidate for the position of county commissioner and stated his candidacy this morning in the approved formal style. His announcement follows:

"To the democrats of Allen county: At the solicitation of a large number of the democrats of the county I will be a candidate for the nomination for county commissioner at the primary, August 8, 1916. As is well known, I was a candidate in 1914 and defeated by a narrow margin. As Richland township is known as the Gibraltar of Allen county, and that section has had no representation for the last six years, I feel that the township is now entitled to this representation, and justice dictates that I should be the candidate. Earnest in a desire to be of service to the county, and with thanks for past support, I ask the nomination of the democracy of Allen county."

Where there have been plenty of "mentioned" candidates in the races for various portions of the county ticket, this is the first open announcement. Others are active in solicitation to this nomination or that, but more or less covertly. Among them are J. Miller Landick, who is out for clerkship, and T. F. Clem, who is deputy clerk at present and hopes to advance a notch. Leonard Walther and Lehr Miller, deputy sheriffs, are after the job of treasurer, and Elmer Miller, of Cairo, is said to aspire to the surveyor's office. Henry Beatty, J. C. Baxter and Frank Wright are among those mentioned for the commissionership.

Poor Theodore Elijah Burton's presidential boom has had a number of hard knocks, but about the hardest yet dealt has been the unwitting move of his manager, former Speaker Canville W. Mooney, of Ashtabula county, in naming governor Willis to place the Cleveland man in nomination. Heretofore the hope has had Harding as the orator chosen for that purpose, but with the selection of the Marion editor as temporary chairman the Burton adherents have centered on the Ada professor as the nominator.

Willis is not the orator that Harding is, nor is he as well and favorably known. He has a voice like a foghorn and can make himself heard throughout the Coliseum, but his appearance on the platform is not that of a polished speaker. He may be able to crib up a speech which will take, but Mooney will not be wasting time in pruning it a bit. Where the governor is not well known he may get by, but at a rough guess it is safe to assert that Burton's name will not be presented in as eloquent a manner as that candidate may desire. Mooney announced his decision today.

The selection of Harding as temporary chairman is a blow to the progressive element in the G. O. P. ranks, for the senator is identified with the standpat forces. When Harding is found backing any advanced move in his party Gabriel

HIS SUICIDE PROTEST AGAINST GRAFT

Dr. Theodore B. Sachs, who has aroused many charitable workers and their sponsors in Chicago, who look on his act as a protest against graft in the Chicago Municipal Tuberculosis Sanatorium, of which he was the head. He resigned from the public institution and went to his private sanatorium at Naperville, where he took poison. He said politicians had interfered with the work of the municipal sanatorium, and that he had grown weary of fighting them.

Cabinet Member In Bomb Proof Helmet

Winston Churchill, former lord of the admiralty in the British cabinet, is here shown in the bomb proof helmet he wears in the trenches in France. He is now a colonel with the British army, which like the French is equipped with the helmet to save the head when shrapnel bursts in the air.

SNOW STORMS ARE MOVING EASTWARD; CENTER IN OHIO

Cities Suffer and Transportation Lines Have Been Hindered.

Snow and Rain Forecast For Next Two Days

Sent Out.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Snow storms centering over Ohio valley and Cape Hatteras were moving eastward and northward today and promised to cover almost the whole region east of the Mississippi and north of the gulf states. Temperatures had dropped below seasonal averages in most of that territory, but no extreme cold was reported.

Snow or rain for tonight was predicted by the weather bureau for New England, New York, the Ohio valley and the lower lake region, and it may continue tomorrow. The storm in the Ohio valley is expected to last into Sunday with a possibility of freezing temperatures in part of that region.

In its forecast for the week beginning Sunday, the weather bureau says: "Unseasonably cool weather will prevail the first half of the week over the great Central valleys and the districts east thereof with probably frosts throughout the interior of the gulf and south Atlantic states, except the Florida peninsula, and freezing temperatures throughout the Mississippi and Ohio valleys, the lake region, the middle Atlantic and New England states."

"The latter part of the week in these regions will be much warmer. The storm that now covers the Ohio valley and the middle Atlantic states will advance northeastward and be attended by snow Sunday in the Ohio valley and lower lake region and snow or rain in the north Atlantic states. With this exception generally fair weather will prevail throughout the country during the coming week."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 8.—Snow fell over practically all parts of Indiana today. The fall was a little less than an inch, which is the most that has fallen so late in the season, since 1901, according to the weather bureau officials. The lowest

BOND ISSUE LOGIC.

S.—Those Harassed Will Pay.

"There is no reason for any opposition to the proposed bond issues, if there is any," declared a well known former railroad man who, by reason of his former office training, is regarded as an expert along lines that qualify him to discuss intelligently the issues to be voted for by the citizens of Lima on April 25. "I have gone over these problems carefully during the last few weeks and I am positive that the cost to the taxpayers will be even less than the thirty-two and a half cents per year per thousand dollars, on the tax duplicate spoken of at the court house meeting on Thursday night."

"It must be remembered that Lima is growing steadily and rapidly. The growth in population is almost marvelous and increases in population are bound to be accompanied by huge additions to the tax duplicate, for where more people live there must be more residences and more business houses and places of employment, such as new factories and increased capacities in the old ones. Each increase to the tax duplicate brings corresponding decreases to the individual's taxes, because the taxable property has increased and the rate of taxation therefore decreases."

"Even the river improvement will bring about hundreds of additions to the tax duplicate. Before any one shall have to pay one cent of taxes for that improvement there will be scores of tracts of real estate that are now on the tax duplicate for almost nothing will be valued for taxable purposes for many times their present valuations. A man who owns a large number of lots in the flood district told me the other day that he has lots that he now values at only $50 that will be put on the market for $1500 if the improvement is carried out as contemplated by the bond issue."

AUDITORS FIX OIL WELL VALUATIONS

FINDLAY, O., April 8.—Auditors from eight counties comprising the oil producing district of northwestern Ohio, at a meeting here fixed the valuation to be placed upon oil wells according to the number of barrels produced. Well producing one-third of a barrel or less a day, the tax value is placed at $150, and for those more than one-third of a barrel the tax value is named at $400 for each barrel of the average daily yield.

Commissioner Peckinpaugh of the Ohio state taxing commission, and R. J. Berry of the Ohio Oil company, met with the auditors. The auditors present were:

William Klein, Van Wert county; J. P. Steinbrunner, Mercer county; Frank R. Smith, Sandusky county; R. S. Gillespie, Wood county; F. W. Langhorst, Auglaize county; E. F. Sweeney, Lucas county; J. N. Traxler, Hancock county, and T. A. Welsh, Allen county.

IRA AYERS MISSING, WIFE TELLS POLICE

Leaves Home After Drawing $26 of Pay; Family Anxious.

Considerable mystery surrounds the disappearance of Ira Ayers from his home on west McKibben street, according to information given the police department this morning.

The wife appeared at headquarters and requested chief McKinney to search for the missing man, who left home Wednesday and has not been seen since then.

The wife informed police that he went away last Monday and did not appear again until Wednesday. After drawing his pay amounting to about $26 he left the house on the evening of Wednesday without making any statement as to where he was going.

The wife stated that she knew no reason for his leaving home although it is said that he had been drinking considerably in past weeks. A description of the missing man has been sent to surrounding cities in hope that he may be located and returned to his wife and two children.

FATHER FATALLY HURT BY HIS SON

WHEELING, W. Va., April 8.—W. W. Bethel, a prominent resident of Flushing, Ohio, was attacked early today by his sixteen year old son Elton and according to physicians was badly injured that he will die. The attack took place in a local hotel where Bethel and his son were stopping, the father having brought the son here to consult a specialist, it being believed that the boy was suffering from a neurotic ailment. Young Bethel attempted to drown himself in the Ohio river yesterday but was rescued.

HELD FOR SELLING NARCOTICS.

COLUMBUS, O., April 8.—A long search by federal authorities for a man known as "Zorella," wanted on the charge of selling narcotics in violation of the Harrison law, is believed to have ended in this city. A man suffering from the use of drugs, was found in the business district and taken to a hospital where C. L. Geist, internal revenue officer identified him as W. L. McCuddin, aged 28, and the man whom government authorities have been seeking.

FORCE WILL STAY UNTIL END OF TASK

WILL NOT WITHDRAW BEFORE WORK IS COMPLETED.

STRIKE A FRESH TRAIL

NEWS OF SUCCESS IS EXPECTED AT ANY HOUR NOW.

EXPEDITIONARY FIELD HEADQUARTERS, SOUTH OF NAMIQUIPA, April 5.—(By aeroplane and wireless to Columbus, N. M.) April 8.—That the American troops are on a fresh trail of Villa is a report made by an army aviator and an observer who returned today from what may prove one of the most important scouting flights of the campaign.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Recurrent reports that American troops were to be withdrawn from Mexico were met today at the state department with a statement by Secretary Lansing that no such withdrawal was contemplated so far as he knew and at the war department by publication, for the first time, of the original order to Major General Funston. The order follows:

"You will promptly organize an adequate force of military troops under the command of Brigadier General John J. Pershing and will direct him to proceed promptly across the border in pursuit of the Mexican band which attacked the town of Columbus, New Mexico, and the troops there on the morning of March 20. These troops will be withdrawn to American territory as soon as the de facto government of Mexico is able to relieve them of this work. In any event the work of these troops will be regarded as finished as soon as Villa's band or bands are known to be broken up."

Brigadier General Scott, chief of staff, declared today that General Funston had not yet reported that the spirit of the garrison officials was to obtain provisions. No verification of the report was possible, but the fact that the bandit was reliably reported to have been only 50 miles from Parral two days ago, gave color to the story.

This information served at least to add a considerable dampener on the hopes of those who thought that the bandit's career might be ended by another brilliant dash on the part of the American troops who have pushed to Satevo. Army officers here say that a repetition of Colonel Dodd's exploit was hardly likely in view of the great distance of the advance corps from the nearest supply base. Unless Villa is within 50 or 60 miles of the Americans, if he has reached Parral, it is said that the chase must settle down into a steady grind with the issue to be decided as an endurance test between the United States soldiers and the bandits.

The repeated disappointments of the troops of a speedy termination to the pursuit has given new life to the alarmists on the border. The stories of the massing of the Carranza troops in proximity to the international line, which had died away for a period, have been revived in all their old vigor and with several additions. While there is no doubting that there are considerable numbers of Carranza soldiers at several points within 20 miles of Sonora and Chihuahua, there is no doubt that their numbers have been greatly exaggerated by the alarmists. No exact estimate is possible, as the troops are constantly shifting from town to town, but Americans who have passed through northern Sonora and Chihuahua in the last two weeks, are convinced that "the total is not more than 10,000, and possibly less. General Calles in Sonora, has between 6,000 and 8,000 men, with some artillery. In northern Chihuahua there is a somewhat larger number scattered over a very large district."

Those soldiers are drawn from the most ignorant classes of the people, and most of them have served in the armies of Villa and other National

In eight reels and every inch of the film is perfection. As this will probably be the last presentation of this great picture in Lima, you should not lose this opportunity of seeing one of the great masterpieces of the motion picture art. Those who desire to avoid the immense crowds that are sure to attend the night performance are advised to see "An Alien" in the afternoon.

For Saturday, the Faurot will have that most charming screen star, Marguerite Snow, who will appear in her latest Metro wonderplay, "A Corner in Cotton".

Saturday's bill at the Faurot is really a triple one. In addition to "A Corner in Cotton", Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew will be seen in a new comedy, and Paramount Pictographs, the most diverting of recent film novelties, will be presented.

STAR THEATRE.

First run films, fresh from the world's greatest motion picture town, Universal City, continue to bring gratifying patronage to the cosy Star theatre, where one is always sure of finding entertainment that is not only new, but of the finest quality.

Today the Star has for its headliner "Mignonette", a two-reel romance of the operatic stage by Henry Dittmar. It is an Imp production and has Harry Benham and Edna Pendleton in the leading roles. In addition the program shows "Bill's Wife", a Laemmle comedy with Myrtle Gonzalez, and Fred Church at the head of the cast, and the Animated Weekly, with its up-to-the-minute views of world events as they were caught by the Universal's camera men.

For Sunday the Star will have "The Voice of the Tempter", a three-reel Gold Seal prize drama with Juan de la Cruz, Stella Razeto and Eddie Polo leading a formidable cast of players. This is a big production in every way—the kind the big studios at Universal City are built for. It will be shown in connection with a lively Nestor comedy, "Putting Her Foot in It", with Billie Rhodes and Ray Gallagher as the featured players.

PEARL WHITE AT EMPIRE TOMORROW IN "THE IRON CLAW"

Featuring Pearl White, the idol of movie fans, Creighton Hale and Sheldon Lewis, and others of the well remembered "Clutching Hand" case, the new serial produced by Pathe entitled "The Iron Claw" will no doubt prove more popular than did "The Exploits of Elaine". The title of the first episode is "The Vengeance of Legar". The story is filled with thrills and excitement and introduces once again the man of mystery, who is called "The Laughing Mask".

On Monday, Rose Melville, will be seen in her first comedy entitled "Leap Year Wooing". Everyone knows of "Sis" Hopkins, and it is indeed a tribute to the popularity of motion pictures, to see this legitimate star in the films. As "Sis" Hopkins says, "Watch out, Charlie, I'm in the movies". You will want to see her first screen comedy, and you will enjoy it.

JOHN DREW.

John Drew, who is frequently referred to as the most distinguished comedian on the American stage, comes to the Faurot next Thursday night when he will be seen in Horace Annesley Vachell's modern comedy, "The Chief". The comedy had its original production in Washington from which city it went to New York. Its success in the latter city was very pronounced, not because the actor has a following there that is loyal to him in all that he undertakes, but because the work proved to be more than ordinarily interesting and entertaining. At the conclusion of its run in New York the play was taken to Boston and to Philadelphia and in both cities its duplicated the hit that it scored in Gotham. Mr. Vachell's comedy is smartly written, its lines being bright and its situations extremely interesting. Its scenes are laid in London and while the action is supposed to take place at the present time there is never a mention of the war or its horrors, for which some people will thank the courageous playwright. In the play Mr. Drew has the role of an Earl, who is a widower of middle age. The plot deals with the efforts of his mother-in-law to keep him in her family by marrying him off to her second daughter. The company of which Laura Hope Crews is the leading woman, is a well balanced one. In connection with Mr. Drew's engagement it is worthy of note that this is his first appearance in Lima. Of course this city had little chance of seeing him when he was leading man of Augustin Daly's famous company, but since he has been Charles Frohman's first star, this city has never had the pleasure of seeing him on the stage of the Faurot.

John Drew's company, which is to be seen at the Faurot next Thursday night has this one resemblance to a big musical comedy organization—it is strong in its feminine element. But there all similarities cease. In "The Chief," the comedian's new comedy, all the women differ in appearance, in temperament and in everything else. Each is a distinct type. The leading woman is Laura Hope Crews, who is blond, sympathetic and coquishly alluring. This is Thais Lawton, who is decidedly brunette, statuesque and usually affects an icy demeanor that you are not sure is all her own. Consuelo Bailey is the youngest of the company and has the role of one. She is fair and slight and full of spirit. Katherine Stewart is the grand dame of the organization and she looks the role of the mother who insists on accompanying her daughter as chaperone to the theatre not because it is the only way that she can get there, but because it is such a good form. In the play Mr. Drew is admired and wanted by all the women. It is a pleasant role. Both play and player have been meeting with considerable success during the tour.

FAUROT—"THE PRINCESS PAT"

Victor Herbert's new operetta, "The Princess Pat," which will be heard at the Faurot on Friday evening, April 21, has scored a success. Anything new from the very melodious pen of Mr. Herbert is usually hailed with more than pleasant anticipation. It only remains for "The Princess Pat" to duplicate in point of charm his "Milk and Honey," "The Only Girl" and other equally successful operas. The new piece is produced under the auspices of John Cort. The book and lyrics are by Henry Blossom. The new opera is a love story set to music. The music brings the call of life and youth, the night to merriment and the banishment of sorrow. In the cast are Ruth Welch, Paul Nicholson, Phillip H. Ryley, Earl Benham, Edie Tork, Edward Metcalf, Ben Hendricks, Georgio Gregario and Tote Marks. There will be an efficient chorus and an augmented Herbert orchestra.

ORPHEUM.

After a successful three days of musical comedy the Orpheum will offer a very high class vaudeville program for the first half of the coming week starting Monday afternoon, April 10th. Five all feature vaudeville acts being on the program. An announcement of interest to Lima theatre goers is the fact that on the coming bill a Lima boy will make an appearance in vaudeville. Tommy Overholt, formerly of this city, will appear in the act of Tommy Overholt and the Young Sisters, "The Song and Dance of Fashion Plates", presenting a classy musical comedy act with dancing. This act comes direct from the Keith circuit. Four other high class acts compose the program. A most interesting and entertaining dramatic sketch with a punch is that of the dramatic sensation "Which One Shall I Marry?" Antrim and Vale in a comedy singing and talking act will prove most pleasing. Manning and Lee in patter and songs, and Horas and Preston "The Fastest Acrobatic Act in Vaudeville" comprises the five acts.

Special tomorrow, one of the William Fox celebrated motion picture features, presenting William Farnum in "Fighting Blood", inspired by the famous song "My Old Kentucky Home". In addition to this great picture, special vaudeville numbers will be given between the reels making a most entertaining program. One performance Sunday afternoon at 2:30, continuous Sunday night from 7 P. M. Better attend the afternoon performance and avoid the immense night crowds. Monday night, April 10th, at the second performance only that great funmaker, "The Country Store", will be offered as an additional feature to the regular vaudeville program. "A PRICE FOR FOLLY."

At Empire Tomorrow—A Remarkable Picture.

Remarkable for magnificent interpretation and exquisite settings, "A Price for Folly" an exceptional Blue Ribbon photodrama produced by the Vitaphone Company, does not aim at commonplace realism, but strikes deeper with an idealism that delves into the mystic of character, and it is all done in a spiritual way, possibly the very best way it could be done. Written by George P. Dillenback, and produced by George D. Baker, the play has moments of fine structure and unqualified sincerity of treatment. In its review of "A Price for Folly" the New York Dramatic Mirror states: "There really is not a thing the matter with this play. Viewed from any angle of the film producing game, it is almost perfect, or, if not that, then as good as expert human endeavor may succeed in making it. Perhaps the fact that it is as good as it is precludes the possibility of our saying much more about it than that, we repeat, it is good. However, it is better than that, for it is a strong, forceful play, beautifully presented, that may at least be good cue better."

NEW BARRISCALE ROLE REPLETE WITH ROMANCE

Love Interest Paramount in Latest Triangle-Kay Reel, "Bullets and Brown Eyes."

Although many photodramas have been written around plots dealing with the desire of royalty in mythical kingdoms, J. G. Hawks, of the Thomas H. Ince staff of photo playwrights, the author of "Bullets and Brown Eyes," the Triangle Kay-Reel feature in which Bessie Barriscale is starred, is declared to have set a new standard for this kind of production.

Though the production is said to be replete with thrills and the tragedy of battle, the author has laid stress on the fact that it is a romance, and in preparing his script for production, did so with one idea of making the love story paramount.

Hawks, before becoming a photo playwright, passed through stirring adventures in many of the outposts of the world, as soldier, actor and explorer.

CLOCK KEEPS TAB ON LOAFING MEN

New Swiss Timepiece Tells How Many Hours Are Wasted in Day.

A new watch has a number of interesting and valuable functions, but it will not tell the time. It is of Swiss origin and manufacture and is a close relative to the stop watch, which was originally designed for use on the race track, but this piece is designed for even more practical uses, as it is meant to measure the time of the equipment of the factory and industrial establishment where it is desired to secure reliable data as to cost and time of various mechanical operations. The old-fashioned stop watch answered this purpose for a long time, but its use detailed a rather prolonged computation with pencil and paper to arrive at the result of output per hour or day. The dial is divided into tenths and hundredths of minutes and also contains figures spaced two hundredths of a minute apart and distinctly legible that indicate at any point of elapsed time exactly what the corresponding output per hour is. If it requires 75 of a minute to perform one operation, as shown by the stopping of the large hand, the reading 75 directly under it is the corresponding output per hour.

Accurate tabs may be kept on an employee who loafs at his task or wastes his energy in unnecessary movements. Assuming that an employee performs a certain task in an elapsed time of 11 minutes, the observer will follow this with a new watch checking and will stop the watch during the fraction of the minute during which the employee loafs or wastes time. The result will be the actual time required for the work with ordinary application on the part of the operative and the difference will be the time lost or wasted.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

FLAG DAY FOR BELGIUM

This is Flag Day as far as relief for the Belgians is concerned. In many cities in this country philanthropic organizations are interested in selling little Belgian flags in order to raise money for the martyr nation which is now suffering because of the conflicting ambitions of the more powerful capitals of Europe. May the sun be large.

Belgium has been the "goat" nation for centuries. As early as the day of Julius Caesar the lowland country along the North sea has been the battlefield of rivals, and for many centuries this has been the football for the powerful princes of the Continent. Spain lost the Netherlands, which then included the present territory of Belgium, only after the most persistent efforts to establish tyranny, and the dwellers along the dykes more than once let in the floods of the North sea in order to kill off their oppressors. It was on her territory that Waterloo was fought more than a century ago. The numerous captures of Antwerp and Brussels are proverbial, but the separation from Holland in 1839 by no means ended her troubles, as the present war will show.

This tiny plaything of Mars, this little kingdom which has been the scene of bloodshed for ten centuries, has rarely suffered for sins of her own. Most of the battles fought on her soil have been between coalitions of which she was not a partner. In few of the wars decided on her fields has she been a participant, and she has been with Holland and Switzerland, a leading factor in the development of international law relative to neutrals.

Since 1839 there has been a common understanding among the powers of the Continent to the effect that this trio shall be protected from any one power. Yet the most direct road from Berlin to Paris lay through Belgian plains, hence the present plight of the prostrate nation. There are many Americans who hold positive opinions regarding the struggle across the Atlantic, and no doubt many whose beliefs are governed more by wish than by judgment. The partisanship is great, and there are radical friends and enemies for both Alliance and Entente. But all will agree that the martyr nation, Belgium, is playing the ikebana role. Her experience is a lesson in preparedness, her resistance an eloquent sermon on patriotism. Whatever our sympathies with regard to the outcome of the war, we must all admit that King Albert's little monarchy, pathetically small and insignificant beside the rival forces united in a death-struggle on her territory, deserves all that this nation can give her in the way of help.

HARDING AS A KEYNOTER

The G. O. P. national committee, through a sub-committee chosen for the purpose, has selected Senator Warren G. Harding to act as official clarion for the coming convention at Chicago. His duties will be the preparation of a keynote address, outlining the planks upon which the pre-arranged resolutions committee shall have agreed for the platform, and the guiding of the steam roller which is to flatten out the contesting delegations not in accord with the national committee. Harding is well qualified.

Harding can make a great campaign speech. As a stump orator he is one of the few old-school spread-eagles left. As a public speaker he is a rank failure. When it comes to putting nothing whatever into a rosette array of meaningless adjectives, the Marion editor is a brilliant success. He can talk longer without disclosing the total absence of thought from his utterances than any man in the party.

 The senator is capable of saying what the platform committee shall desire him to say. The members will revise his address and make it conform to the wishes of the party bosses.

Harding will wave the bloody shirt and denounce the party of Woodrow Wilson as the party of rebellion, although the issues of a century ago have no bearing on the issues of today. He will refer to the glorious past—long past—of his party, but we will bet a lead dollar to a brass nickel that he omits Pan-ama and Ballinger and some of the recent scandals of the G. O. P. He will dwell at length on the memories of Lincoln, forgetting that his party tried to impeach the man who wanted to carry out Lincoln's plans. He will refer grandiosely to Grant, omitting to add that Grant's administration was, because of the childish innocence of the general, the most corrupt in the history of the United States. He will extol Garfield, not stating that the latter's assassination arose from a broken promise. He will laud Hayes, ignoring the fact that the Hayes manager, Chandler, cheated Tilden out of a well-won election. He will devote time to Harrison, elected by the corrupt "block-of-five" campaign, and exalt McKinley, whose violent death alone saved him from the stigma of Hanna's brand.

Harding's job is to make it appear that all Republicans are born to be blessed in Heaven, all Democrats to sizzle in the pit of Tartarus. He is expected to call Mr. Wilson everything fit to print, while inferring that the meanest Republican on earth can beat him. His is the task of piling words together in such a way as to confer no definite meaning, but to convey the impression that no means is too dishonorable to be justified by attempts to defeat the present administration.

Warren is a straight-ticket Republican, with a record for party regularity worthy of the days when splitting meant disbarment. He is an old Foraker partisan, one who voted for the car franchise which the latter ended upon Cincinnati while Harding was a state senator. He is the orator who yielded "defence and devotion to George B. Cox of Hamilton county" in 1903. We believe him eminently qualified to fill the office of temporary chairman at Chicago as we have outlined it above.

That story about Cap Gale running for sheriff on the Republican ticket does not sound so fishy on second thought. As the hero of the battle of Murphy street and the survivor of the Chattanooga campaign of 1898, the safety director might make an admirable (G. O. P.) candidate.

Now that Gale, Heffner, McKinney and Evans, all former employes of the postoffice, are on the city payroll, Uncle Sam has a chance to see what a fine lot of valuable workers he has lost.

Misprints often tell virulent truths. A contemporary states that an Ohio man is to be temporary chairman of the Chicago "contention".

There is a popular song entitled:
 "Are You Half the Man Your Mother Thought You'd Be?"
 Mighty few men ever turn out that well.

The old-fashioned voter who admired Turbulent Teddy and the Big Stick now has a son who is ashamed to admit that the "old gent" stuck to the colonel.

GOOD EVENING: Use both sides of your stationery if you want to save off that famine.

NEW NOTES MOVIELAND

By DAISY DEAN
 DOROTHY GLISH, who can make new friends in her latest Triangle play, "Molly Make-Believe," will be seen again in the very near future in Little Men's advance. Owen Moore, Mary Pickford's husband, plays opposite her. An unusually large supporting cast includes Margaret Hays, Kate Dansey, Fred A. Butler, Robert Lawler and James O'Hara.
 Right on the heels of her sister comes Lillian Gish as a young American girl in "Sold for Barter." The action takes the players from Russia to America and requires the actress in support of the star of Frank Benson, Walter Long, A. H. Sears, Pearl Brown and many others.

PROBABLY SHE ONLY WORE A YARD OR SO.
 Metro publicist informs us that Dorothy Green in her first Metro picture wears "a purple silk gown that cost $25 a yard." This is the first time we've heard of dresses being priced according to their length and when you consider where the new style dresses begin and end the cost of the dress isn't so appalling after all.
 A further description of the dress says: "It is an evening gown shot with silver in lightning streaks and was fashioned with tulle from the shoulders." Sounds as though Dorothy ought to carry burglar, fire, life and health insurance.

MARGUERITE CLARK IN "MOLLY MAKE-BELIEVE"
 Marguerite Clark is the star of "Molly Make-Believe," an adaptation of the story and book by Eleanor Hallowell Abbott, which, after appearing as a serial in one of the historical magazines, was issued in book form and has been one of the most popular gift books ever since.
 Though the story centers around a series of letters, when the film makes its appearance soon it will be found that it has been converted into a romantic photoplay by the star, director and cast. J. Searle Dawley directed the photoplay.

As movie villains are supposed to be more dangerously villainous if pale, Stuart Holmes, the William Dorothy Glish.

 She is a native Dayton, Ohio, and in addition to being a first-rate actress on her own account, enjoys the further distinction of being the sister of the famous Lillian Glish.

Fox star, had a hard time keeping his complexion light while working in Jamaica for four months. He solved it by using a "shellac complexion," such as stout old ladies use to simulate youth.

Mary Fuller, Universal Heights star, had to do a scene with eight babies in the picture entitled "Little Mother." That's rather a lot of babies for an unmarried girl to mother, but Miss Fuller went at it with gritted teeth and plenty of milk bottles, and came through with not an infant crying.

What Other Papers Say

NOT POLITICS BUT BUSINESS.

William Allen White, the most idealistic of all the progressive leaders who have followed Col. Roosevelt's political fortunes, has come to welcome Root and Lodge and Penrose and Snoot and "the other republicans who opposed us in 1912," provided they "swing in behind our banner" and remember that "they are coming to our leader and our program."

Mr. White knows little of the republican party and less of Col. Roosevelt if he thinks that there is a solitary progressive atom drifting in the wave of this republican movement to nominate the colonel for president. "Our leader" is there, but "our programme" is in the garbage-pail.
 The Roosevelt candidacy is not politics but business, and the republicans who are hostile to it are hospitable for business reasons. That is why it is almost certain to succeed. It is in the control of the republican party, and that particular kind of business now finds the colonel very useful to its purposes.

His "foreign policy" is perfectly adapted to the objects of the great munitions manufacturers, the head of whom is the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. "The Morgan interests that have been so friendly to us."

His preparedness programme is likewise perfectly adapted to the objects of these munitions-makers, for they wish to put the United States on a war basis in time of peace.
 His Mexican policy fits in with all the plans of the banking-houses that invested in the securities which they are afraid that Carranza will invalidate. It fits in too with the plans of those American interests in Mexico which have good reason to know that any honest Mexican government will cancel their concessions. They want a Big-Stick protectorate over Mexico which will continue the privileges that they acquired from a corrupt and despotic government at the expense of the Mexican people.

Col. Roosevelt's tariff policy has always been the tariff policy of the monopoly protectionists, and the monopoly protectionists are among the fiercest enemies of President Wilson.

As for Wall Street, it always prefers a republican, however erratic and uncertain, with whom it can do business, to a democrat, however stable and consistent, with whom it cannot do business. Wall Street may have some bitter recollections of Theodore Roosevelt, but it can never forget that Woodrow Wilson is man who plugged the pipe-line into the United States treasury.

The Old Guard knows the Colonel and knows how to deal with him. It worked with him for years and the partnership was profitable to all concerned. For reasons of party expediency it was obliged to oppose him in 1912, but it much prefers the Colonel to a man like Justice Hughes, who will neither bargain nor barter.

What Mr. White fails to understand is that our programme" is Hanaism under a new management, with all the old elements of Hana-ism plus militarism, imperialism and war.

Dollar-government republicans are willing to take Roosevelt or anybody who might help them overthrow Wilson, and the Colonel is the most available man; for if they reject him he can poll enough votes as a progressive candidate to make the defeat of their ticket certain. Col. Roosevelt is willing to make a deal with anybody if such a deal will give him even a fighting chance to get back to the White House. That is the psychology of the situation.

Mr. White and his progressive friends may as well face the facts first as last.—New York World.

TRAVELETTE BY NIKSAH.

BATAVIA.

You go to Batavia by way of Singapore. The trip is often a more severe test of one's seamanship abilities than even the famous passage of the Bay of Biscay. The water is not so rough between Singapore and Batavia, but many of the little vessels carry cargoes of live stock and a crowd of dock passengers eating varied lunches en route, all of which combines with the choppy swell of the Java sea to make a tremendous assault on the steadiest stomach.

Batavia is Dutch. The Dutch have a remarkable way of carrying out not only their customs, but even their characteristic landscape around with them when they colonize. This may be because they only colonize places that rather resemble Holland, or it may be that after they have colonized they alter the landscape to remind them of home. At any rate here in the heart of Malaysia, in one of the most exotic situations on earth, there are canals running down from the sea, and the canals that might have been the canals of Holland from the Netherlands.

Batavia is a city of great vehement variety. People move from hotel to hotel, in motor-cars, in horse-drawn carriages of English make, in bullock-carts, in a mode extravagant, built like the Dutch barges used for the tin mine here, with two wheels well up forward so that the imperfectly equipped is in continual danger of pitching out behind, and in a little steam railroad which combines the functions of a grand trunk line with those of a trolley car. The water travel there is the choice of half a dozen models of boats.
 The people using this varied means of transportation—and some of them even walk—are an equally varied assortment. There are Chinese in many thousands, Arabs who deal in precious stones, Indians and Bur-

After Grip—Winter Colds—Bad Blood

You are pale, thin, weak—with little vitality. Your liver is sluggish and the bad blood causes your stomach muscles to lose their elasticity and become flabby and weak—then indigestion.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, purely vegetable and free from alcohol or narcotics, is the great and powerful blood purifier of today. Extracted from American forest herbs and roots. Contains no alcohol. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Take it as directed and it will search out impure and poisonous matter throughout the system and eliminate it through the natural channels.

NATURE POINTS THE WAY.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had an obstinate cough which I was unable to get rid of. I tried several remedies which did little good. Then I began taking Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; it helped me at once, and by continuing its use for a few weeks the cough left me entirely. I have had no return since, except slight colds. I kept 'Golden Medical Discovery' in the house all the time as a family remedy."—Mr. G. S. RAMBACHER, Southern Ohio, Columbus, Ohio.

Malay and Dutch as the staples—and Malay is easier to learn.

Batavia is a pleasant place to visit, but the traveler rarely feels the pang of parting keenly. The climate is not exactly fascinating. It rains every afternoon for long seasons, and when it is not raining it always feels as if it were just about to begin. Such a climate has its drawbacks. However, it seems to delight the animal and vegetable kingdoms, from the great beaks and great trees of the jungle to the wealth of little bugs and insects and the lush gardens of Batavia itself. After all, man can't have everything his own way.

CHINESE INDEPENDENCE.

CANTON, China, April 7.—Lung Ching Kiang, governor of the province of Kwan-Tung, in conformity with the wishes of the people, last night declared the independence of the province. The announcement was received with general rejoicing.

HEALTH HINTS

Strain of the Winter Brings Lack of "Pop."

The winter season, with its increased amount of trouble and excitement caused by hard work, late hours, social affairs, and rigorous weather has left its mark on many people in the form of coughs, cold or a feeling of indolence or lack of vitality.

This shows that the extra burden placed upon the system by the severe conditions of the season has lowered the natural resisting powers of the normal body.

With the coming of spring there is much talk of "spring medicine" and "spring tonics." Far too many people turn to such sources for relief. There are many good reasons why these alluring "tonics" should be avoided. One is that they rarely do any good and another is that they may often do serious harm.

Regular habits, a proper amount of exercise, fresh air and good food are common sense remedies for the feeling of lassitude felt at this season of the year.

If you feel ill enough to need medicine, consult a reputable physician instead of doctoring yourself.

A Non-Taxable Income—Strongly Safeguarded

Tax-day worries do not exist for more than 10,000 intelligent men and women in Ohio whose funds are invested (some of them for more than ten years) in the 7% tax-free, preferred stocks we have marketed.

On April 1st, each of these will receive a quarterly dividend check representing 1 1/4% on the investment, without having to pay out from 50% to 100% of this income immediately for taxes. This will be the third or fourth such check to go to some of our older clients—and in every instance they have received these checks unflinchingly and without delay since the day they purchased preferred stock recommended by us. Furthermore, not one of these people has ever lost a dollar on these securities.

For the investment of idle funds that would otherwise be taxable on April 10th, we strongly recommend the 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock of The Central Steel Company of Massillon, Ohio. This is one of the most modern and profitable independent steel properties in the Middle West, and, in our opinion, has a remarkably brilliant future ahead of it.

There are more than $200 of net, tangible assets behind each $100 par value of preferred stock outstanding—and a margin of current net earnings more than five times the amount necessary to pay preferred dividends. These and other items of physical value combine with strong legal safeguards to make this one of the strongest securities we have ever marketed.

A complete presentation of the facts about this magnificent property, and its itemized financial statement, are embodied in a new 16 page booklet we have just printed for the convenience of investors who are seeking immediate and desirable commitments for idle funds.

Write your name and address on a post card and send it in today so that we may forward this information in time for you to complete your investigation before tax-day.

PRESBYTERY WILL MEET AT COLUMBUS GROVE

Special Services Planned For Many Lima Churches Sunday Morning and Evening

Lima Presbytery, consisting of about 30 churches, will hold the spring meeting at Columbus Grove, Monday and Tuesday. Ministers and laymen will attend. The first session will open at 2 o'clock. Both Market Street and Olivet churches will be represented.

Four addresses will be given, based on "The Ideal Layman" and "The Ministry of the Modern Church." The Rev. J. W. Christy, of Van Wert, serving moderator, will give the sermon on Monday evening and celebrate communion. A new moderator and clerk will be elected. Tuesday will be devoted to business sessions and the Presbytery will close that night. The Rev. Ralph Kohr is entertaining pastor.

A vesper service will be held at Christ Church, Episcopal, next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The story of the life of Christ, as taken from the Bible, will be read by Mrs. J. K. Bannister. The music incidental thereto will be given by Mrs. Forster Robinson, Miss Pauline Jones, Mrs. C. S. Baxter and Mrs. John W. Roby. The public is invited. A silver offering will be taken.

SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

CONDUCTED BY THE REV. D. CARL YODER

23 KNOWLES ST., EAST CLEVELAND, OHIO.
Gen'l Sec'y, Cleveland Sunday School Association and Field Worker of the Ohio Sunday School Association, to Whom All Questions Relating to the Work Should be Addressed.

THEME FOR DISCUSSION.
(Mrs. D. Carl Yoder)

1. What effect had Saul's conversion upon the persecution of the Christians? Recall the missionary work already done by Philip, Peter and John. Trace the journey to Lydda.

2. V. 32. What object had Peter in view in "passing through all quarters? What is a salutary? Compare this with Jesus' healing people by the way. What was the secret of Peter's accomplishing big things for the Master? What lesson to us?

3. V. 33. What of the healing ministry of the church today? Is she fulfilling it? Just what is our Christian teaching about healing? "Jesus Christ healeth thee"—What matters our gifts to the poor, and ministries to the sick if we take not Jesus Christ with it all?

4. V. 36. Mention Bible women who rendered real service to God. What has Christianity done for women? Compare with woman's position under the old religions of the East. Who have done more for the church, women or men? A discussion of God's call to definite service. "Have you a 'Dorcas' in your church?" Whence Dorcas' motive for service? Did she have to be specially noticed to keep up her interest in this service? Suggest practical deeds of love and kindness that might be performed by your class.

5. V. 38. Why was Peter sent for? Who would you send for in the event of sorrow in your home? Would we wish the power of resurrection if it were given us? By which did the apostles accomplish most, through their preaching or their miracles? What rescue work today may compare with the miracles of this lesson?

6. V. 39. How may we have sincere mourners at our funeral? 8. What is a miracle? What proof that Jesus worked miracles? What proof that he did not work miracles? "The greatest of miracles is the resurrection of Jesus; it is so strong that it can carry all the other miracles on its back. Paul believed that Jesus rose from the dead, and Paul was no dunce. He was so great an intellectual giant that he dominates a large part of Christian thought today. Having made certain of the resurrection of Jesus, we need not tarry in consideration of the other miracles. If Christ was so transcendently great as to be able to burst the bonds of death, then it is not difficult to believe that he said to sick men, 'Arise and walk.'"

9. What prejudices today can be overcome before the church today can be prepared for the great forward missionary movement as were Paul and Peter?

10. What is a miracle? What proof that Jesus worked miracles? What proof that he did not work miracles? "The greatest of miracles is the resurrection of Jesus; it is so strong that it can carry all the other miracles on its back. Paul believed that Jesus rose from the dead, and Paul was no dunce. He was so great an intellectual giant that he dominates a large part of Christian thought today. Having made certain of the resurrection of Jesus, we need not tarry in consideration of the other miracles. If Christ was so transcendently great as to be able to burst the bonds of death, then it is not difficult to believe that he said to sick men, 'Arise and walk.'"

CONANT ITEMS.

The farmers around here are starting their plows. Hurray for spring!

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierstorff are on the sick list.

Roy Thomas sold a fine percheron mare Tuesday to the Delphos horse buyers.

Ruby, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Briggs, who has been quite sick the past week, is better at this writing.

The Amanda Stone company at this place, had a large steam shovel delivered at the quarry Wednesday. They expect to do a large amount of work this summer.

Miss Sarah Derham, who has been quite poorly, is improving slowly.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Little, March 31, an 8-pound boy.

A large crowd gathered here Wednesday evening to participate in the old-fashioned belling of R. T. Sutton, who claimed Miss Grace Black as his wife.

D. F. Sunderland called on Frank Pierstorff, Wednesday.

Carl Briggs, Robert Pierstorff and Misses Hazel Sunderland and Olive Thomas attended the debate at Anloch school house, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Susie Meeker called on Mrs. Samuel Thomas, Friday.

Owing to the wet weather, the Lima and Spencerville pike would make a good garbage dump. There are plenty of chuck-holes that need filling up.

THE ACHES OF HOUSE CLEANING

The pain and soreness caused by bruises, over-exertion and straining during house cleaning time are soothed away by Sloan's Liniment. No need to suffer this agony. Just apply Sloan's Liniment to the sore spots, rub only a little. In a short time the pain leaves, you rest comfortably and enjoy a refreshing sleep. One grateful user writes: "Sloan's Liniment is worth its weight in gold." Keep a bottle on hand, use it against all Soreness, Neuralgia and Bruises. Kills pain. 25c at your Druggist.

1. Indicate some of the superintendents' week-day work.

He must as a business man have a desk outfit which he cares for during the week. This outfit will include the street card index of the scholar's homes for visitation, an alphabetical index of the schools, a filing plan for clippings, programs, references, etc., a yearly record book, and a loose leaf note book for suggestions, plans, ideas worth noting, and duties to be performed.

He ought to write a letter to an absent discouraged teacher, letters to scholars or teachers of sorrow-touched homes; to members of the school who made christian decisions, he will write many letters suggesting visits to be made and duties to be performed.

He needs to be in personal touch with teachers and members of a friendly talk. He must be a familiar face in the community personally visiting the sick, the teacher that needs strength, and the home of sorrow.—Frank L. Brown

2. What is a memorial Sunday school hymn and how used?

The Broadway M. E. school of Cleveland, has several fitting songs which are song in memory of any and all who may have died the preceding week. The chorister makes the simple announcement that "we will now sing our memorial hymn," and lest any one may not know who have died he will read the names and then all sing most tenderly

The Week In Society

MARIE N. NAGEL

"What hath this day deserved, what hath it done,
That it in golden letters should be set Among the high tides of the calendar?" —"King John."

same lines would some day be applied to himself with honor and reverence by all the people of the LITTLE did the "Immortal Bard" realize that those English speaking world and some people not of the English speaking world. All over the world, but especially in this country, as we have more opportunity to do so, there will be a celebration of the 300th anniversary of the death of Shakespeare on April 23.

There will be many forms of celebrations, plays and masques by professionals and amateurs, pageants, musical and dance festivals, lectures and recitals, but whatever form it may take it will be a tribute to the poet.

On Friday evening the Lima Federation of clubs assisted by the Shakespeare club will for their regular quarterly meeting give the celebration of the Shakespeare tercentenary in the form of a lecture by W. C. Tichner of Lebanon, Ohio, assisted by Mrs. C. S. Baxter, Mrs. Harry Macdonald and Fredrick Batelle, on "Music in Shakespeare". Mr. Tichner is a lecturer of note, and through the medium of friends, he has extended the courtesy of his services to the club. All the federation members are invited and each member is entitled to bring one guest.

There will also be a community celebration of this event which will be held April 24. Plans have not yet been completed as to the form this celebration will take, but the schools will in some way show their love and appreciation for the poet, who by his universality is as much our poet as that of England.

The Miami University Glee club will be presented here April 22 at the Central Church of Christ under the auspices of the Social Service club. Seats are now on sale. The club consists of 25 students whose program is made up of choral singing, readings and solo work. The Glee club will have the services of Prof. Aubrey W. Martin, director of music at Miami university, as the vocal soloist for the season. Prof. Martin has had a wide and successful experience as a concert singer, having appeared on the programs of chautauquas, women's clubs, teachers' institutes and various other organizations in several different states. Among his more important engagements mentioned his appearance with the New York Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Martin's work is always of a high order and his contribution to the program will be thoroughly enjoyed by all lovers of good singing.

If one will read the press notice taken from the Troy Record, Troy, Ohio, they will realize the club is worth hearing:

"A splendid audience greeted the Miami University Glee club, and the hearty applause given the various numbers indicated that the enjoyment of the program was general. Musically, the feature of the evening was the beautiful baritone solos by Aubrey W. Martin, the director of the club. His numbers were most sympathetically sung and his sweet voice will long be remembered here. Robert Calderwood, reader and impersonator, is a Troy favorite and each appearance has added to his following. The Miami University Glee club is an organization which will bring the Alma Mater of its members into favorable consideration wherever it goes, for not only is its entertainment a creditable one, but the young men composing it are individually excellent advertisements of the character of young men attracted by this school of honorable history and worthy present, and of the impress given at 'old Miami'."

Tickets may be procured from any members of the Welfare league or the Social Service club. Price of admission is 25 cents.

All the members of the Betsy Ross club were present yesterday at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. John Kendrick. The afternoon was spent in needlework and contests, the prizes of the contest being won by Mrs. Alfred Reuther and Mrs. Ed. Fisher of the club members, and Mrs. A. B. Fox of the guests. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Clyde Meyers, the Misses Jeanette Kemper and Ethel Seiber. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Ethel Seiber and Mrs. Marie Focht. The club will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Alfred Reuther.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mackenzie entertained the members of the T and T club last evening at the Lima club. Dinner was served in the living room and a color scheme of red and white was effectively carried out, red roses and white carnations. A large number of the flowers covered with green tulle entered the large square table at which twenty-five were seated. Red candles in crystal holders, and red rose nut baskets further carried out the decorations. Following the dinner an interesting program was given. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Huchner, H. Stephenson, Mrs. Martha Ruby and Mrs. Morris.

Miss Gladys Dickey entertained the members of the W. H. N. M. club and their friends at her home on West Wayne street, Tuesday evening, April 4. Dancing and song were the order of the evening and very delightful games were provided for the guests who were: Misses Ruth Wilcox, Helen King, Virginia Page, Gladys Dickey, Sly Patterson, Gertrude Smith, Lillian Williams and Mildred Downing; Messrs. Olen Dickey, Russell Benson, Neil Patterson, Lloyd Bussert, Harold Hawscher, Lawrence Keating, Edwin Wentworth and George Feoville.

Mrs. Laura Hick, of West Wayne street, entertained the members of the Ladies Aid of the First Baptist church yesterday at her home. Business occupied the first part of the afternoon, the remainder was given to social pleasures. An interesting address was given by the Rev. Franklin A. Stiles after which refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harry Chapman and Mrs. Harry Walter. The next monthly meeting of the society will be at the home of Mrs. C. B. Thomas.

The basis of friendship is understanding, the tenure of friendship is sincerity, the fruit of friendship is progress, and the crown of friendship is peace. —Richard Wightman: The Things He Wrote to Her.

Mrs. T. K. Jacobs was the leader of the all-day meeting held yesterday by the Mission Study class of the Market Street Presbyterian church. The meeting was well attended.

Missionary society of the Central Church of Christ met yesterday with Mrs. A. B. Hoze, Latin-American and missionary work being done in this region was the topic discussed by Mrs. Kent Hughes, Mrs. John Rossfeld and Mrs. C. N. Shook. A short business meeting preceded the social hour after which the society adjourned.

Because of their contemplated move Mrs. V. Hayes Miller, wife of the Rev. V. Hayes Miller, pastor of the South Side Church of Christ, handed in her resignation of the office held in the C. W. B. M. of the church. The C. W. B. M. met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Clarke, of East Kibby street. The program for the afternoon which was in charge of Mrs. Theodore Feist, was an interesting one and consisted of the following numbers: A review of the missionary work done in Latin-America, by Mrs. Albert; a missionary letter read by Mrs. W. E. Glenn, and a missionary story was told by Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Fred Wallace and Mrs. Garrius sang several pretty selections. At the close of the program, Mrs. Miller gave a farewell talk to the members, and Mrs. D. W. Whitney, president of the society, responded with an expression of sorrow for the whole society in losing Mrs. Miller. The hostess served refreshments at the finish of the program, and was assisted by Mrs. Seithman and Mrs. Dethman.

Members of the Pleasant Hour club enjoyed the meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Julia Spornbauer. Contests were played at which the prizes were won by Mrs. A. Rummel and Mrs. Harley Moffet. Cuddling Easter favors marked the delicious lunch served late in the afternoon. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Deibler, of North Main street.

Miss Margaret Gallagher entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sprague, on North McDonald street, with a surprise miscellaneous shower, in honor of Miss Ethel Watt, whose marriage to Armon Carney of Columbus, occurs this month. Dancing to Victrola music, and games, in which Miss Lena Smith won first prize, Miss Margaret King second prize, were diversions of the evening. Two course lunch was served to the guests, who were: The Misses Margaret King, Nellie Murray, Elizabeth Brown, Inez Bendure, Vivian Long, Marie Conkey, Naomi Pitters, Mary Thurston, Vera Stoner, Cora Julia Judy, Helen Laushty, Cy Baker, Amber McCreary, Ethel Potter, Hannah Bush, Edna Bird, Florence Watt, Marie Keefe, Ella Piper, Ruth Saunders, Hazel Meeks, Edna Smith, Lena Smith, Ethel Watt, Mrs. Anna Straley, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sprague, Marjorie Sprague, Master Engle, Misses Margaret, Jennie and Mayne Gallagher; Lee Gallagher, Mr. Hoyer, M. W. Afflis of Montpelier, Ohio.

Miss Francis Easley, who is attending Miss Baker's School of Home Economics in Indianapolis, and specializing in domestic science and domestic art, was in town yesterday, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Easley, of West Wayne street. She is spending her spring vacation with her aunt, Mrs. Robt. Millard, of Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Alice M. Hill of West Spring street, left this week for Washington, D. C., where she will visit her daughter, Miss Alice M. Hill, who is doing research work there for the children's bureau. From Washington, Mrs. Hill will visit her brother, William McAnally, near Richmond, Virginia.

Luther league of Zion's Evangelical Lutheran church will hold a social meeting Thursday evening, in Sunday school room.

Betsy Batts, of Botkins, says: "What if all these married women what is allus complainin' about never havin' enough of anything had to lustie, and provide everything for themselves as most of the widows do."

The Twelfth club of the German Reformed church met last Thursday evening at the parish house of the church. The meeting which was a business one consisted in electing officers for the coming year. Officers elected were: Carl Meckelauer, president; Jacob Koller, vice president; Carl Rhoda, secretary; Daron Bishop, treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the parish house April 15th and plans are being made to entertain the fathers at this meeting.

Mrs. J. P. Summers entertained the Winoanians circle yesterday afternoon. Household suggestions were used in answering the roll call by the 12 members present. The afternoon was one of social enjoyment and at the conclusion a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Emmett Everett, who was the only guest of the club. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. B. H. Simpson.

Mrs. Frankel is surrounded by her many friends and neighbors, who will call during the day and evening to offer congratulations and wish her many more happy birthdays. Mrs. Frankel is in remarkable health for one of her age. She takes a wide interest in civic affairs and doings of the times.

The New York Sun reports that it was Benjamin Franklin Hamilton, of Saco, Me., who first gave a clerkship to an American woman. In the early '60s Mr. Hamilton engaged Miss Sarah Moulton to measure out ribbons in his store. When the town learned that a woman was employed, it was unspokeably shocked and for some months boycotted the shop. There are now nearly 600,000 women wage-earners in New York City alone.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of Trinity M. E. church will hold its regular meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon, April 12, at 2:30 o'clock.

THE HOPE BOX

Copyright 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

THERE COMES a time in every girl's life when she dreams of the hope box.

I remember how astonished I was when she told me of her anticipated campaign, as I did not suppose girls ever thought of hope boxes until they had been chosen by their choice!

"Indeed not," this young lady informed me. "That is what a hope box is for—to stimulate us to matrimonial activity. I don't think I must tell you what is the storehouse where girls lay aside memoirs, little trinkets that have tender histories, then—they begin to fill the box with pretty things—embroidered towels, hemstitched linen, bric-a-brac, favorite authors, a cook book, articles on household hints, pretty little lamp shades, sofa cushions, prints and framed pictures, candlesticks and sometimes bright and shining kitchen utensils."

Many girls add to these a lace and embroidered trousseau—which gives the secret of the hope box away to you all! They are planning for the happiest time in a girl's life—that time when she is to marry the man she loves.

Some girls never marry the man they love and the hope box lies in the attic, year after year, until there dust covers it with a heavy gray curtain.

I knew a young lady once who filled her hope box until the cover had to be pressed down upon its almost bulging sides, and after the box was filled, she made up her mind that now was the time to find

of the newspapers:
An unknown, pitifully unattractive woman had committed suicide, jumping from a tenth story window to the sidewalk.

"Who is she? Why did she do it?"

Gas Service Is Instantaneous

How long does it take to heat your home?

If the house feels chilly or damp—do you have to go down in the cellar and go through the laborious process of building a fire?

Or do you merely have to light a match, turn a valve—and wait a few minutes for welcome warmth and comfort?

In other words, have you heating work or heat-in service in your home?

May Be Found—at Bluem's

A Medium or Full Figure, seeking to mould the waist-line shown in the Spring fashions, will find corsets of ordinary strength absolutely inadequate to stand the strain. Such garments will break down or stretch out of shape very quickly. And if a fleshy abdomen must be reduced, the task is hopeless without a corset made especially for the purpose.

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets are made for just such figures and just such purposes. They have the latest figure lines and no amount of wearing pressure can change them.

The change will be yours when these extra strong corsets with the well known Rengo Belt reducing feature have imparted to your figure every bit of the mould of present fashion which they possess.

Boned with double watch-spring steels, guaranteed not to rust.

Leaders In Five Man Event Drop In Second Place

The close of the bowling tournament for this week was marked last night by the capture of first place in the five-man event by the Mud Hens, who were successful in ousting the Giants from this position by receiving credit for nine more pins. Last night's events had little effect with positions of prize contenders. Christman and J. O'Brien rolled 871 for fifth position in the money in doubles. Eddie Stapleton rolled 607 in singles, taking second position in this event. He obtained the high individual mark for the evening by scoring 224 in a game. The tournament will be resumed Monday.

GROWTH OF FINGER NAILS.

No two finger nails on a person's hands grow at the same rate. The nail on the middle finger grows faster than any other, while the thumb nail is the slowest growing nail. As a rule, for the nails on the right hand grow faster than those on the left.

The state of one's health, too, affects the rate of growth. The nails on invalids' hands grow considerably faster than in the hands of a healthy person. Taken on the average, the rate of growth is an eighth of an inch a month, or from an inch to an inch and a half a year.

East Iron Is Yet to Get Suits

Practice work of the various teams of the Industrial league has commenced on their line-ups. All of the teams with the exception of the East Iron have their playing suits. The manager of the latter organization stated last night that they would be ordered within the next couple of weeks.

White suits with black trimmings will adorn the Garford squad, black and orange spangles will be worn by the Deisel-Wemmer and the Locomotive team will be equipped with gray uniforms. Although the suits of these three teams are somewhat old they are in good condition and will stand to good advantage on the diamond.

At the next meeting of the board of directors, Friday, May 5, it is necessary that each of the managers past $25 with the treasurer of the league. This is to guarantee good faith of the teams that are members of the organization and prevent the disbanding of the league before the schedule is played out.

It was agreed last night that all of the money taken in at the Industrial league games on Saturday afternoons should be equally divided among the four clubs at the end of the playing season. The funds will be placed in charge of the treasurer until the end of the season.

Chase May Not Sign With Reds

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., April 8.—Hal Chase, premier first sacker of all leagues, who was sold by his Federal league owners to the Cincinnati Reds, has not made up his mind whether he will report to Garry Herrmann or remain here on the coast.

Following out the announcements of this morning, in which it was announced that Chase had been taken over by the Cincinnati Reds, there came a wire to Chase, directing him to report at once for duty.

Hal, who is for a few days making his home in San Francisco, is by no means certain that he wants to go east, and declares that he will not report for a week or so if indeed he goes at all.

I have not made up my mind just what I am going to do," he said last night. "I suppose they can either force me to join the Reds or put me on the mettle but, but it is possible that I would prefer to remain in California, even if there is no chance to play ball. At all events, I am in no hurry to decide, and will take all the time I want before reaching a conclusion."

Dillon vs. Levinsky

KANSAS CITY, April 8.—Dan Molan, manager of Battling Levinsky, announced yesterday afternoon that articles have been signed for a ten-round bout between Levinsky and Jack Dillon for the light heavyweight championship of the world. The battle will be staged by Gabe Kaufman at the Central Athletic club, Kansas City, April 25. In addition to a $7500 purse divided 85 and 15, the winner will be given a diamond belt emblematic of the light heavyweight championship.

Nate Lewis, manager for Charlie White, announced this morning that a return engagement will be fought between White and Nat Wells before the "Atlas A. C." Boston, on April 12.

Promoter Kaufman bid $11,000 for a fight between White and Benny Leonard, to be staged in Kansas City some time in May. Lewis accepted in behalf of White, but Leonard has not yet been heard from.

Boxing Results

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 8.—Champion Lightweight Boxer Freddy Welsh had a light shade on points in a ten-round no-decision bout in Milwaukee with Richie Mitchell last night.

Outweighed about 10 pounds Mitchell stepped into the ring against the champion and fought him to a standstill. Welsh had a shade on the score of blows landed.

It was one of the prettiest fights in the history of the ten-round no-decision game here. From the tap of the first gong the two boys were at work and both were lightning fast. Mitchell had a pop of a left, which he stuck into Welsh's face repeatedly when once he found the range.

Mitchell also used a good right cross, but his work with his right was inaccurate and uncertain at the critical stages. It was his left that did most of the work, combined with some flashy footwork that was about as good as anything Welsh himself showed around here.

It was in the lightning that Welsh excelled. At close range and particularly in the hugging clinches Welsh was unbeatable. Early in the fight he discovered that Mitchell was an adept at protecting his jaw, but was somewhat weak on the defensive below the neck.

So the champion went to work on the Milwaukeean's mid-section, and he certainly landed some pippins to the stomach. Whenever Welsh was carried to the ropes by Mitchell's rushes the champion simply ducked, his head went into a crouch and proceeded to pound Mitchell in the belly.

Either Welsh was slower on his feet than usual or else the lightning stuff shown by Mitchell made him look a bit slower than he usually appears.

But Welsh had everything in the defensive line that was needed, and none of the blows Mitchell landed hurt him.

What little blood was shed came from Mitchell's lips, which were cut by one of Welsh's snake-like left jabs early in the bout.

Ever Hammer of Chicago, and Freddie Welsh last night agreed on terms for a ten-round battle with Ratchford at the probable location, and will meet in Chicago today to sign articles. A representative of the Racine club will be present at the meeting.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 8.—Johnny O'Leary, Pacific coast champion, last night defeated Jimmy Duffy of Lockport, N. Y. in ten slashing rounds at the Garden club. Although outweighed O'Leary carried the fight to Duffy from the start and out-fought him in every round but the second. O'Leary cut Duffy's eye in the third round and quit the ring without a mark. O'Leary weighed 157, Duffy 141.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 8.—Tom Jones, manager of Champion Jess Willard, was an arrival yesterday afternoon and will remain here about three weeks to take the baths and rest before resuming advance work in connection with his championship.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Harry Willis showed up John Lester Johnson in a ten-round bout at the Harlem Sporting club last night. After feeling the sting of Willis' punches in the first and second rounds Johnson refused to swap punches and managed to stay the limit by running and clinching.

New York Americans Want Tris

NEW YORK, April 7.—Tris Speaker, the great center fielder of the Boston Red Sox, is likely to be wearing Yankee spangles within a few hours. It was learned last night that a deal, whereby the heavy hitting Hubbs would come to New York, has been hanging fire since the American league meeting here in February. Boston is willing to trade Speaker for Fritz Maisel and a cash consideration. New York is willing to buy Speaker, but does not want to give up Maisel.

A meeting between Captain Til Houston and Colonel Jacob Rupert, owners of the Yankees, and President Joseph Lannin, of the Boston club, is said to have been held yesterday morning. Managers Donovan and Carrigan were consulted. Another meeting is scheduled for today, when it is likely all details will be cleaned up.

Hal Chase Signed By Cincy Club

CINCINNATI, O., April 7.—President August Herrmann, of the Cincinnati National league club, announced yesterday the purchase of First Baseman Hal Chase of the Buffalo Federal league club. Chase is now working with the San Francisco team of the Pacific Coast league and according to Mr. Herrmann, he was wired to report at once. The purchase price was not given.

NORTH ABINGTON, Mass., April 8.—Harry Carlson, of Brockton, defeated Howard McKee of Cambridge, in a ten-round bout before a large crowd here last night. McKee was groggy in the last round, but led during the first five.

TO X. Y. Z.

Again I thank you for your letter, and I will meet you at the time and place you indicate.

Let me assure you I am determined to put a stop to the malicious rumor that I would pose as a man of wealth and position in order to marry a respectable and wealthy Lima woman for her money.

I am independent, and have had many opportunities to marry in my native city, had I cared to take advantage of them. I have successfully attempted many large enterprises, but have never felt that I could launch upon a matrimonial adventure in the 45 years of my life, much less wed, go to housekeeping and settle down in a day, as some of the gossips would have me do. I don't believe anybody can do it.

MARKETS

METAL STOCKS SHOW
WELL ON WALL ST.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Metal stocks were almost the sole feature of strength at today's listless opening. Anaconda, Kennecott, Chicago, Utah, Inspiration and American Zinc rising from small to a substantial fraction. Marbles also rose slightly above yesterday's heavy close but the war group as represented by Crucible Steel, Westinghouse and International Nickel was moderately lower. Industrial Alcohol lost half a point, all of which was soon recovered. Rails were featureless with some pressure against Canadian Pacific and New Haven.

The foreign situation continued to exert an unfavorable influence over today's market, even though advances from Washington and other important points were of a more reassuring character. Trading was moderately active, but almost wholly at the expense of prices, standard stocks falling to lowest quotations of the week. U. S. Steel occupied its former place as leader, falling 3-4 to 82 3-4, but the more speculative specialties were lower by 1-2 to 2 points, with a 3-point decline in Industrial Alcohol. Copper were an element of support, the output, but yielded later. General dealings were made in the final recoveries, on the rise in zinc shares. The closing was irregular. Bonds were steady.

WAR RUMORS RUN
WHEAT PRICE DOWN

CHICAGO, April 8.—Anxiety as to developments in the relations of Germany and the United States had a bearish effect today on wheat. The opening, which ranged from 1/4 to 1/2 up, with May at $1.17 1/2 to $1.17 1/2, and July at $1.15 1/2 to $1.16, was followed by general declines of 1c or more under yesterday's finish. Corn weakened with wheat. Unsettled weather failed to act as an offset. After opening virtually unchanged, the market underwent a substantial setback all around. Oats seemed to have lost all independence of other grain. Trade was light, and the trend of prices downward.

Support was lacking in provisions. Pork especially seemed heavy. Wheat prices closed unsettled, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 net lower with May at $1.16 to $1.16 1/2 and July at $1.14 to $1.14 1/2. The corn was steady at 1/4 to 1/2 net decline. The close was: Wheat, May $1.16; July $1.14. Corn, May 75; July 76 1/2. Oats, May 45 1/2; July 43 1/2. Pork, May $23.17; July $22.50. Lard, May $11.47; July $11.67. Ribs, May $12.25; July $12.37.

FORTIFY DESERT TO HOLD CANAL

British Dig Trenches While Loose Sand Fills Up Holes.

LONDON, April 7.—An idea of the difficulties attendant on a Turkish attack on the Suez canal is given by a correspondent in the Times. He writes that the British have made to repel any such expedition, the chief obstacle to be faced by an attacking Turkish army is a 100-mile waste of desert land which they must cross before they can engage the enemy.

The correspondent says: "During my visit to the front line of defenses I was much impressed with the character of the work and the enthusiastic labor of the troops. In this respect the preparation of the lines was given to a division composed of veterans who proved their courage and martial spirit in the stern days in Gallipoli."

"They came to Egypt with nerves unshaken, for the Gallipoli ordeal had merely tempered them. But jaundice and other forms of sickness which prey on troops had lowered their systems. After recuperating for three weeks in a desert rest camp they were ready for fresh trials. Indeed, the divisional commander told me that the news that his men were to prepare and occupy the first line gave them intense satisfaction. Though the subsequent toil was heavy and the conditions were great, their health remained splendid. Their work for the empire has acted as a tonic and the rate of sickness among these war-worn heroes has fallen to 3 per 1,000."

"Filled labor is used on railway and road construction, but only troops are employed on the defenses. For weeks the troops, British and colonial, dug leveled, sandbagged and so on until they had produced a system of earthworks incomparably superior to any made in Egypt before. Those who watched them were amazed at their skill and pride in the work. They have done magnificently, and in the whole of a wonderful line the men seem to be that there is not an idler. There is no room for a drone in that line of been."

"Trench making in the desert used to be never-ending and heart-breaking. You cut a hole and the sand filtered in like water. Even should the air be still tiny particles would drift in; but when the Khamsin blow, as does now the Khamsin, the force of the wind blows heavily charging the air with sand, there comes over the trench parapet and gun emplacements a fog of dust which quickly fills the laboriously cut holes. This is bad enough, but the loose sand is easily distributed when the storm subsides. What is to be feared is that the walls of the trenches will fall away and then the whooping sand storm will have been in vain."

"A new form of trench has been planned to meet the difficulty. The latest design involves infinitely more labor in the initial stages, but prevents damage by storm or the pressure of the sand. These elaborate trenches will stand the ravages of time and of the desert storm. Perhaps some future excavators for relics of ancient people will come upon these memorials of the love free men today have for all that civilization and progress stand for."

STARTS FIRE ACCIDENTALLY.
POSTORIA, O., April 8.—Horace M. Davis, 23, confessed this morning he accidentally set a fire which burned two barns on the T. J. Manekes farm Friday evening. Davis went to the Manekes barn, lighted a cigarette and dropped the burning match in some straw outside the barn. The prisoner was taken to Tiffin and placed in jail, a charge of arson being filed against him.

TO IMPROVE SCHOOL BUILDING.

At a meeting of the school board last night it became known that numerous improvements are to be made on the Emerson building at the corner of Jefferson street and the Findlay road. However, just what is contemplated by the board is not known at the present time. Members stated that conditions around some of the other buildings were to be bettered within a short time. A report of conditions as found in the Emerson building by the state inspector will be read at the meeting of the board next Tuesday night.

LIMA HAS MANY MUSICAL STUDENTS AT SCHOOLS

Mrs. Butler Gives Review of Girls Who Are Winning Distinction.

At the matinee recital of the Women's Music club at Market Street Presbyterian church, Thursday, Mrs. Leah M. Butler, vice president of the club for the coming year, read the following paper on "Music News," sketching doings of Lima musicians studying abroad, as follows:

Women have been the inspiration for much of the best work done by great musicians in the past and probably will continue to be in the future.

For the most part our women have written songs and men have composed the accompaniment for them, but we have today a number of women who are doing both. Today's program has several numbers by representative American women composers. Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, the most prominent one, has worldwide fame, not only for songs and piano music, but also for her orchestral work. She has the honor of having the Boston Symphony orchestra play her first symphony, as well as the Philadelphia Symphony orchestra. There is a dearth of music for organ and violin, written by women, so additional numbers are given today.

Pleasing Jessie Gaynor is continuing her work as a composer and giving recitals with her daughter, Rose. Through excellent club work in Buffalo, a former associate member, has made a name. Clara Lynde Kahle (Mrs. A. W. Kahle), her lovely songs being set to music by Lawrence Montague.

Margaret Lang, Patty Starr, of Cleveland, and numerous other writers have won recognition, but no one more than Mary Turner Ealter, whose songs are sung all over the land. She is a very busy woman, being the wife of one of the professors at Williams college. She is also a composer and a great organist.

Mrs. Alfred Sprague, of Chicago, has made gift of a new building for the music department of Yale college as a memorial to her husband, who was a Yale graduate in '89.

One of the many great teachers of music in America is Miss Kate Chittenden, who in 25 years has taught over 3,000 pupils, going from New York to Vassar college each week for 16 years, besides lecturing regularly for the New York Board of Education for 25 years. She was the first woman ever chosen to lecture on music.

All who love "The Land of the Sky Blue Water" and other Indian songs by Charles Wakefield Cadman will be interested in hearing that he has been most successful in giving his "Indian Music Talk," having his songs sung by Princess Tatiana Red Feather, who has a beautiful voice.

Miss Collingwood Tucker has given a delightful series of lecture recitals in Chicago on Afro-American folk songs.

The Musical Courier recently printed an article, telling something of the Lima Women's Music club, its beginning, an dthe current year, speaking in high praise of our efforts in the past 25 years, to promote music in Lima and vicinity.

That much may be done in a musical way in small towns is shown by the work of one woman in a West Virginia town of 1,500 souls. She had means and ability and for a number of years has fostered music by finding every voice with a note of promise in it, discovering people who once played and getting them to work. Her beautiful home and grounds are thrown open for recitals regularly and young and old are urged to do their best, the result being a village of people well informed on music for all are interested and talk music.

Mothers often complain that children will not practice. One wonders how often they take their children to concerts, and if they talk about music to them. At present Lima mothers can help to promote music by encouraging children in attending all rehearsals for the musical and physical culture entertainments at Memorial hall, April 14 and 15 and again on May and 6, the community chorus and high school concert for funds for playgrounds equipment.

The high school orchestra is another factor. Every effort that is in our midst, church choirs should be encouraged, clubs and societies should include music in each program and above all, there should be live music in the home.

Frederick A. Stock, Chicago Symphony orchestra conductor, in the Craftsman for April says: "What joy and happiness there is in her home music and the gathering of a few friends for such music as they are able to produce among themselves, people in this country can hardly realize, but in Europe home music is almost as essential and as important as home cooking." He also foretells of the day when symphony orchestras will be all over the land, and we all know the great strides that have been taken right here in Lima in that way. Certainly "There is music in the air."

Nowadays when advertising a town, no one factor is a greater asset in attracting heads of families than the fact that it has a great music club, orchestra, good music in schools, for such can only be the case where citizens are interested in social betterment.

There are many of our associate members and daughters who are doing good work at home and abroad, but limited time makes it possible to speak of only a few today.

One of the most industrious is Mayme Davis Hahn, for three years president of the Cincinnati Matinee Musical. Last month they decided to declare a dividend to their 90 active members, $20 to each, but at a later meeting, it was found the action was illegal; they rescinded it and now have Judge Swing as a legal adviser and will have legal aspect of future operations provided for. Mrs. Hahn continues her excellent work in violin, is organist in a large church, and has many duties which she performs well; she is one of Cincinnati's most valued women.

No one from Lima has ever had equal advantages with Edna Burton Van Dyke (Edna de Lima), who as a little girl became interested in music. When only 11 years old she was playing the organ in a church in Westminster, and from that time on had her vision. She was a constant worker in all music lines, violin clubs, Lima college, Christ church, Episcopal, rural concerts with Mrs. Banta, and men; other factors make her what she is today. Work, work, work is what she has done, winning fame in great music centers of Europe, returning to her home-land because of the war, but not ceasing to work.

Madame Sembrich, one of the greatest singers in the world, has since that time been her instructor, and on April 25, Edna de Lima will make her American debut in Boston, center of American music, under Madame Sembrich's direction, with Frank La Forge as accompanist. La Forge has appeared in Lima.

All this should inspire mothers with a desire to help their children musically.

Winifred Sullivan Romer has been doing her 14 years' work at Temple Israel in St. Louis. Her popularity is evidenced by the fact that she has been soloist for two symphony concerts there this winter and has another big concert engagement for next month. She has just returned from concert work at Atlantic City and New York.

Helen Thompson is soon to complete her work at Emma Willard school in Troy, N. Y. Music has been her specialty and she has received many honors for good work. Next week she sings in the annual Glee club concert, and will be soloist at a principal Commencement function.

Violon Bradley has been taking a full course in Columbus at Wallace conservatory, specializing in organ and piano.

Dorothy Collins is studying in Cincinnati conservatory under Thalberg, Austrian pianist, who accompanies for Dr. Kunwald, leader of the Cincinnati symphony, and with Mrs. Tracy, noted French voice teacher.

Mrs. Evelyn Fletcher Copp, honorary member, is meeting with great success in her Fletcher method in Boston and elsewhere. In a letter to a Lima pupil, she tells of her small son earning a dollar by selling for 10 cents each a recipe for an eggless butterless cake, giving a slice of the cake. The money goes to Belgian children.

A former president, Mrs. Morton, now of Toledo, has been doing excellent work, under one of the best instructors in the state, Mr. Leopold of Cleveland. One of our loyal members, Mrs. E. A. Siferd, has been studying with him. We heard her today.

Mrs. Winona Vincent Forrer is in Detroit, completing her course in the Noble-Shaffer school of training. A week from today she gives her recital and in a fortnight, returns to Lima, when we shall all have the pleasure of hearing her again.

Mrs. H. L. Goodbread of Nevada, who delighted all with her splendid playing two weeks ago, is busy preparing to do regular concert work next year. She will be a great credit to the Music club and to all Ohio.

Mrs. Waldo Berryman has sought a warmer clime this year, with her children, but will soon be with us again, after a winter in Tampa, Fla. Banta is another who has been missed, for she has been in the sunny south with her husband, seeking health. Mrs. Vera Watson Downing is acknowledged to be one of the leading musicians at Columbus. Concert work of a high order, directing a Sunday school orchestra, giving 80 lessons a week, has been part of the splendid work done by another member, Miss Gail Watson.

Of absent student members, Miss Bernadine Taubken has been hard at work in Chicago, studying 'cello with Franz Wagner, and playing in ensemble work at the University of Chicago.

Miss Harriet Kelly writes most enthusiastically about her winter's work in New York. She is studying voice with Mr. Moyle at Carnegie hall, and is also accompanying for him. She is director of the Glee club in the model Young Women's Christian Association of the world, the social secretary of which being one of my life-long friends, often writes in praise of her. Miss Kelly writes: "My voice teacher and Anna Bussert are singing in light opera together since Christmas, and tomorrow night I am going with my teacher's wife to hear them. They sing in the West Chester theater, Mount Vernon. I am working as hard as ever. My, but this has been an eventful winter for me. I would not have missed it for worlds."

Another student member, Miss Marie Kelly, is at present studying voice and piano in the Levee Art Conservatory in Chicago, her voice teacher being Mrs. Langer. She is preparing to do regular recital concert work, but we hope she shall again be with us.

Miss Lenna Rudy continues to teach violin successfully in Beechwood school, Philadelphia. Miss Ruth Brascher, one of the hardest-working students we have ever had, is doing excellent work under Skillman Kelly at Western college, Oxford. She has won high honors and praise from this great man.

Ruth Basien, one of our songsters, has spent her winter with her invalid mother in the bracing air of North Carolina, where she has kept up her work. We are told that she comes north with other song birds soon, and will be with us for Easter.

Have I missed any of the ones of whom I should speak? I sincerely hope not, for no one is more interested than I in not only bringing music to Lima, but Lima to music.

Y. M. C. A. LEADERS CORPS, LIMA, OHIO

THESE MEN ARE BEING MADE PHYSICALLY FIT FOR ANY FUTURE TASK.

Preparedness is the great cry of the day from the halls of congress down to the debating societies in the rural districts. Military preparedness involves something more than armaments, something more than great fortifications, something more than great battleships, something more than high explosives. It involves primarily man efficiency behind everything. It is safe to say that the several hundred thousand young men who have been trained and are being trained every year in the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian Association are worth more toward real preparedness, for peace and for war, than any other class of men in America.

It was proved in the Spanish-American war, and has been proved in many ways since then, that young men who come from the ranks of the Young Men's Christian Association have proved themselves more efficient because of their training than any other class of men. A Young Men's Christian Association building, therefore, with a modern and commodious gymnasium is one of the most valuable adjuncts toward the training of boys and men that a city can provide. It not only offers an opportunity for the noble employment of leisure time, but it is fortifying men to stand the stress and strain of later business life, giving them strong bodies, steady nerves and a physique which becomes the ready servant of the will. An average of nearly four hundred men and boys train annually in the small gymnasium of the Lima Y. M. C. A. What this has meant to thousands of men cannot be calculated in dollars and cents. In all walks of life there are men today, as was illustrated by the testimonies at the old-timers banquet at the Y. M. C. A.

April 5th, who attribute their later business success to the training they received in the Y. M. C. A. This work in Lima which has continued for nearly thirty years comes to a close upon March 1st, 1917, because the present building is sold and the association's lease expires upon that date. Early in May the citizens of Lima will have an opportunity to decide whether or not this work shall continue, when a campaign will be launched for a new building. The gymnasium shown in the illustration is that of the Kokomo, Indiana, Y. M. C. A. It is the pride and delight of the young men and boys of that little city. Kokomo, by the way, with its 20,000 population, has spent over $149,000 in providing the modern equipment for its youth. It is paying dividends that cannot be measured by standards of wealth. What other cities have done, Lima can do.

FACTORIES TAXED TO MEET TRADE DEMAND

NEW YORK, April 8.—Dun's Review in its issue today has this to say regarding trade conditions.

Even after months of extensive buying, requirements continue remarkably heavy and further augmentation of business noted. Consumptive demands are sustained in greater volume than in best previous years and pressure upon industrial forces is unabated, though in some instances high prices check new contracts.

But such cases are still the exception and, in the aggregate, transactions grow, rather than diminish, being limited mainly by the over-sold condition of mills and factories. Manufacturers are working as never before to meet the insistent calls for more merchandise and products, yet outputs, while steadily rising, remain inadequate and many plants fall far behind on orders. Scarcity of materials continues and is not confined to any single industry or trade; it is apparent in steel, in textiles, in leather, in paper and elsewhere, and hampers operations at numerous points. Labor troubles are also a source of increasing annoyance—though strikes are usually quickly settled—and the demand for skilled hands exceeds the supply, while the freight congestion is still a cause of much delay.

Development of new enterprise is general and the railroads buy heavily of equipment; yet, in spite of all efforts to augment facilities, producing and transporting forces fail to keep pace with domestic and foreign requirements. Best results in retail lines are not yet possible, owing to variable weather but the movement expands in most sections and there is prospect of unprecedented eastern distribution. Visiting buyers operate extensively in the leading wholesale markets, both for nearly and future needs, and even larger dealings would be noted were manufacturers in position to promise definite deliveries. Sentiment is more cheerful in financial circles and stock values tend upward, but cotton prices, in contrast to the sharp rise in wheat, give way slowly.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS OTHER

Eat Less Meat Also Fake Glass of Salt Before Eating Breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from back-ache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

DO IT ELECTRICALLY— "Wire Your Home"

The Lighting System for every home should be the first plan fully and carefully worked out. Three-way switches should insure against the necessity of ever going up or down stairs in the dark. A porch light switch should be handy to welcome the coming guests. Be sure to have a separate circuit for heating devices, with convenient outlets for the attachment of flat irons, small motors, cooking devices, fans.

No home is modern without electric service. See us for your electrical work.
